Adam's Place - Charity

The mission of Adam's Place is to provide support for children, teens, and families experiencing grief and loss. Their Camp Cope Programs provide high-quality, psychoeducational peer support groups to facilitate healthy coping skill development, connection, and individual resiliency. Adam's Place is committed to reaching more children, through education and advocacy in the field of childhood bereavement.

Monique Maffei Hester - Entertainer

Monique Maffei Hester (a.k.a. "Monique"), is a professional singer, songwriter, speaker, producer and author, and has been featured in multiple venues all over the U.S. and internationally. Also known for singing her unique version of our National Anthem, Monique is invited to perform it often. She appears regularly at The Composer's Room, and has been on The Dennis Bono Show, the Mark O'Toole Show, and numerous others in Vegas and elsewhere. Monique is the co-creator of a musical, educational children's show. She has also self-produced an online post called "Tea Talk," where she uses everyday life-inspired messages to help people to identify and walk in their Divinely-given purpose.
